

About Aberdeen Foyer

Established in 1995, the Foyer is a charitable organisation supporting people in the North East of Scotland towards independent living, learning and work. The Foyer supports young people and adults to deal with, and move on from, tough situations including homelessness, unemployment, mental illness and poverty. We start with people's strengths, supporting them to build their confidence, develop their talents and make real and lasting change in their lives by:

- providing young people who are homeless or at risk a safe place to stay
- supporting people who are unemployed to learn new skills and move into work
- engaging people through education and learning opportunities
- supporting positive mental health and wellbeing

We deliver joined up services offering supported housing, learning, training, counselling, employment support and health improvement initiatives for young people and adults.

About Prince's Trust Team Programme

The Prince's Trust Team Programme is a 12-week employability programme aimed at increasing confidence, raising motivation and giving learner's the opportunity to gain nationally recognised qualifications.

The Team programme includes a 5-day residential, team projects in the community, 2-week work experience placements and completion of PTQ (Prince's Trust Qualification) & SQA units at National 4.

About the Role

As Team Leader you will plan, recruit and directly manage a cycle of structured 12-week personal development programme for a team of young people aged 16-25, some of whom may exhibit challenging behaviour.

The programme is delivered by Aberdeen Foyer in partnership with Prince's Trust Scotland and North East Scotland College (Nescol).

You will deliver and assess the SQA units and other informal training which is required to meet the course objectives and expected learning outcomes.

It's a challenging, but infinitely rewarding job.

About you

The successful candidate will be excellent at engaging with, and motivating learners. You will have experience of working with, supporting, and engaging with learners on a one-to-one basis and in a group setting. Communication and interpersonal skills are paramount as we need an individual who will be able to work confidently with a range of partners and learners to deliver this programme. One-to-one mentoring, support and groupwork are fundamental to the role therefore it is essential that this is delivered in creative and innovative ways that inspire and motivate our learners.

This is an exciting and challenging role for a highly motivated, dedicated and creative individual who is passionate about helping learners make positive changes in their lives. Aberdeen Foyer are looking for an enthusiastic and driven professional who will relish the challenges laid at their feet, have the ability to gain the respect and trust of the clients we are looking to support, and also have the ability to complete paperwork efficiently.

Benefits

We offer 20 days annual leave plus 12 public holidays rising to a cumulative 37 days with continued service and a contributory company pension. We consider flexible working for most roles which means many of our employees enjoy the freedom of choosing a working pattern that suits them as much as it suits the Foyer.

We are very proud to be both a Living Wage and a Disability Confident employer. We value our employee's wellbeing and offer a Cycle to Work scheme, a monthly Wellbeing Hour and a confidential Employee Assistance Programme which is open to employees and their friends and family.

All posts will have access to training and learning opportunities including, where relevant, trauma informed practice, boundaries and solution focused practice.
